

CONTENTS

Editorial	6
SECTION 1 – PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION IN CUSTOMS DOMAIN
Higher standards on teaching standards Serguei KOUZMINE	7
PICARD standards vs. world-class customs requirements Wendy FALLAS, Georginella BARBOZA, Gabriela BARRIETOS	19
SECTION 2 – IMPLEMENTATION OF THE WCO STANDARDS
The Entry Summary Declaration in the context of risk management Lothar GELLERT	27
Who takes most benefit from AEO certification? An Austrian perspective Hans-Joachim SCHRAMM	35
Trade Facilitation, the Authorized Economic Operator and the Single Window: a Gravity Model Approach Paulo C.de Sá PORTO, Cristiano MORINI	44
The Trade Facilitation Agreement: opportunities and threats for the private sector from the perspective of developing countries Elisha TSHUMA	54
Modernizing the Customs Service of the Republic of Kazakhstan in conditions of formation and development of the Eurasian Economic Union Mazhit ESSENBAYEV	63
ANNOUNCEMENTS	149
Information about authors	150
Conditions for publication	152